

County Health Dept. Closes Roy's Cafe

A permit for the operation of Roy's Cafe, 3420 Redondo Beach Blvd., Torrance, has been permanently suspended as a result of a hearing conducted in the Torrance offices of the Los Angeles County Health Department.

John A. Herberg, operator of Roy's Cafe, was charged with flagrant violation of the California Health and Safety Code.

Emil Berti, a sanitary inspector in the Torrance Health District, listed 16 violations ranging all the way from general uncleanliness to an overflowing

Troop 25

Di Carlos bakery in San Pedro was visited recently by 20 Brownies from Troop 25. They were accompanied by Troop leaders Mmes. G. W. Ackerman, R. V. Ward, and L. M. Warne.

Mothers attending were Mmes. L. R. Beck, W. W. Nation, A. Bridges and D. R. Ogren.

All the girls in the Troop were presented with pencils from the bakery.

cesspool and a sink not connected to the sewer.

David W. Cofelt, Chief Sanitarian of the Torrance Health District, who conducted the hearing, said that the building was unfit for restaurant purposes and that no permit would be issued on the premises.

MUSCULAR DYSTROPHY WEEK is proclaimed by Mayor Albert Isen as part of the March against Muscular Dystrophy conducted by city firemen. Torrance Fire Chief J. J. Benner submitted the proclamation which declared that the "first week of December will mark the annual house-to-house campaign by Muscular Dystrophy Associations of America to combat the dread disease which has stricken more than 200,000 Americans—a majority of them children." Mayor Isen urged all city residents to cooperate with firemen in their fund drive.

High Schools Form String Orchestra

String players from North, South and Torrance High schools have joined together to form a tri-school orchestra which will play for many civic events and different school activities upon request.

This group meets twice a month at Torrance High and is under the direction of all three high school orchestra directors. Mr. Zavisian from South High and Mr. Nickols from Torrance High.

Performances already on calendar for this organization are appearances at Torrance High's Senior Play and a faculty tea.

24 Vie for North High Hoop Team

Bill Wood, coach of the North High's Varsity and Junior Varsity basketball teams, has been getting his players in shape for the coming season.

Returning Varsity and JV hoopers are: Ron Tremain, Ray Whitehead, Tony Mance, Terry Wennstrom, Gary Little, Ken Buchanan, Bill Ginder, Dick Silva, Harry Wegener, and Ron Lane.
